Interesting Cases Up For a Hearing Before Police Justice Burroughs Yesterday.

MR. L. J. OLIVER MAKES AN ASSIGNMENT

Postponed Selling Liquor on Sun day-The Alleged Camblers Held in Bail for a Hearing on Friday-

Justice Burroughs had a large and important docket to dispose of in the Police Court yesterday, but as most of the important cases were continued, mere mention is made to them in our mere mention is made to them in our report:

GUILTY OF THEFT.

A colored man named Arthur Scott was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday, charged under a warrant sworn out by James Smallwood, colored, with theft. Smallwood keeps a barber-shop on Water street, and claims that Scott entered his shop and stole cash in the sum of $5.30. In the Police Court the prisoner denied the charge and tried hard to show how he came by the money. The evidence against him was conclusive, however, and Justice Burroughs gave him sixty days in jail. At the conclusion of the trial of this case, another warrant was served upon the prisoner, charging him with the therf of a watch valued at $40, the property of Mrs. Bettie Diggs, from her house corner of Bermuda and Chapet streets. Justice Burroughs continued this latter warrant for further investigation.

Mr. Morris Rosenberg, the young man arested on Saturday night on awarrant charging him with embozzling in money belonging to S, Rachrach and placed in his hands as stakeholder in a bet made with Mr. Join J. Joner, appeared before Justice Burroughs in the Police Court yesterday with his attorney, Julius T. Saunders, ready to answer the charge. Mr. Bachrach was represented by Attorney P. J. Morris, who asked that the case be continued until to-day to secure additional witnesses. Mr. Saunders did not oppose the metion, and the clase was continued. Both at 5rneys also agreed that the warrant against Mr. Báchrach was bailed in the sum of $25 for his appearance, Mr. Morris entering as his surety, and Mr. Rosenberg was bailed in the sum of $25 for his appearance, Mr. Morris entering as his surety, and Mr. Rosenberg was bailed in the sum of $25 for his appearance, Mr. Morris entering as his surety, and Mr. Rosenberg was bailed in the sum of $25 for his appearance, Mr. Morris entering as his surety, and Mr. Rosenberg was bailed in the sum of $25 for his appearance, Mr. Morris entering as his surety, and Mr. Rosenberg was bailed in the sum of $25 for his appearance, Mr. Morris entering as ROSENBERG AND BACHRACH'S CASES.

Mr. Morris Rosenberg, the young man arested on Saturday night on a warrant charging him with embozzling $15 in money belonging to S. Bachrach and placed in his hands as stakeholder in a bet made with Mr. Join J. Jones, appeared before Justice Burroughs in the Police Court yesterday with his attorney, Julius T. Saunders, ready to answer the charge. Mr. Bachrach was represented by Attorney P. J. Morris, who asked that the case be continued until to-day to secure additional witnesses. Mr. Saunders did not oppose the motion, and the case was continued. Both at preparate Mr. Morris and it will also come up this morning. Mr. Istehrach was bailed in the sum of $55 for his appearance, Mr. Morris entering as his surety, and Mr. Rosenberg was bailed in the sum of $50, Mr. L. B. Hoffman entering as his surety.

SELLING LIQUOR ON SUNDAY.

Among the many hauls captured in the 'raids made on Salurday night and Sunday by Sergeants Taylor and Kirchmeir, Detectives Williams and Curtis, and other officers, was a young white man named Al. Hudgins, who was caught selling liquor on Sunday in a bar-room on Church street. Hudgins was bailed at he station house for his appearance yesterday morning. In the Police Court the young man pleaded not guilty, whereupon Detective Curtis asked that the case be continued until this morning, which was granted, Hudgins being admitted to bail in the sum of $50, with Mr. A. L. Folley as survey.

GAMBLERS' CASES CONTINUED.

When the cases of the sporting men—
John Lewis, "Monk." Montague,
"Tobe" Mapp, Sam. Morrow, and
Hugh McKay—were called in the Police Court yesterday, their counsel, Judge D. Tucker Brooke, asked that the cases be continued until next Friday, as he had to attend court in Portsmouth. Justice Burroughs granted the motion and hailed the prisoners in the sum of $250 each, with surety, for

Life Something Should be Taken to Reep Nerves Strong, Heart Acra the Best Remedy in the World.

The death of So and So from heart failure is becoming a common announcement. Such occurrences are of appalling frequency. Hardly a day passes that some successful merchant, or noted business man, some distinguished professional, or some leading society lady does not succumb to this society lady does not succumb to the control of the death. We hear of the death of prominent people, but how many thousands of people in the ordinary walks of life deaths. Once it fails and all is over. And how quickly it ceases; how unexpected the end! It comes like the thole in the night; its approach is not heard. Whose turn next? Who can tell? Not the wisest of its all. How important then, that we should try to stay its progress; the should have the night power which gives it tone and vital health. Many thoughtful minds have labors of one scientific physican have been crowned, after years of effort, with emight power which gives it tone and vital health. Many thoughtful minds and be convinced of its curative powers."

Walter E. Hannah, of the same town, verifies the above testimonial, as he says; "I can truthfully certify that the above statement of Mr. Vannah is positively true in every sense of the word."

This is not an abolated Instance. Thousands of people throughout the world have also been gaved by Dr. Greene's Nervira, the great blood and nerve remedy. Heart disense does not select its victims; it may strike you at any moment. Nourish and strengthen your vital powers to resist its onslaught by taking this wonderful medicine. Remember this great remedy is the discovery of the successful specialist, Dr. Greene, of 35 west Fourteenth street, New York City, who adds to its value by allowing all who use it to consult him personally or by letter free of charge.
